BLESSED WITH FAITHFUL ABRAHAM

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith (Galatians 3:14).

The blessing of Abraham is no ordinary concept—it is the foundation of the Gospel. Many think of it only in terms of material prosperity, but it's far greater. The blessing of Abraham is the outpouring of God's grace, His covenant kindness, translated from the Hebrew word, "hesed." It includes divine favour, fruitfulness, dominion, and most importantly, the promise of the Spirit.

When God called Abraham, He said, "I will bless you and make you a blessing...and in you shall all the families of the earth be blessed" (Genesis 12:2-3). This was God's prophetic declaration of the Gospel. It was the announcement of His plan to pour out His love and goodness on all humanity through faith. The Apostle Paul made it clear that this blessing has now come to the Gentiles through Jesus Christ.

Thus, if you're in Christ, you're Abraham's seed and an heir according to the promise (Galatians 3:29). You're the fulfilment of God's promise to Abraham thousands of years ago. That blessing includes justification, righteousness, the Holy Spirit, and divine access to God's fullness.

The Bible says, “So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham” (Galatians 3:9). When God made the promise to Abraham, it was to Abraham's seed, which is Christ: “Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ” (Galatians 3:16).

When you received Christ, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise. That seal marks you as God's own and guarantees your access to all the blessings and benefits of the Abrahamic covenant: “And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise” (Galatians 3:29). Walk in this consciousness. You're not trying to be blessed; you're blessed with faithful Abraham. Declare it. Live it. Spread blessings everywhere. Hallelujah!

CONFESSION

I'm the seed of Abraham, blessed and highly favoured in Christ Jesus. The blessing of Abraham is working in me—in my spirit, soul and body. I have access to all that God has made available in Christ. I walk in divine health, prosperity and victory today, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

CARRIERS OF COVENANT KINDNESS

...And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed (Acts 3:25).

When God called and blessed Abraham, the blessing was for the entire generations of mankind. The Lord declared, “...in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.” As referenced in our previous study, that seed is Christ, and all who are in Christ are partakers of that blessing.

Peter, speaking by the Spirit, told the Jews, “Ye are the children of the prophets and of the covenant...” (Acts 3:25). He was calling attention to their divine heritage, one that included being heirs of God’s covenant with Abraham. Through Christ, this covenant has extended to the Gentiles—to anyone who comes to God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Furthermore, this covenant isn’t just about receiving; it’s about “becoming”; God told Abraham, “I will bless you and make you a blessing” (Genesis 12:2). That means we’ve become vessels of blessing. You’re a blessing to your family, city, nation, and your world. You’re the bearer of God's covenant kindness; the Hebrew word is "hesed."

"Hesed" is not ordinary kindness. It's God's covenant love—His favour, His goodness, His mercy—all wrapped into one. When you show kindness, forgive quickly, walk in love, and bless others with your words and actions, you're walking in "hesed." You're revealing the nature of the Father.

You're a carrier of covenant grace. When you arrive, God arrives. His blessing flows through you to turn lives around, lift others, and glorify His Name. The blessing of Abraham was a covenant of all-round prosperity, fruitfulness, dominion and divine favour. That same blessing is at work in your life today. It lifts, multiplies and establishes you in victory. Glory to God!

CONFESSION

I am the seed of Abraham and a carrier of God's covenant kindness. I am blessed and I am a blessing. The grace and goodness of God flow through me to lift others, change atmospheres, and bring glory to God. I live to reveal His lovingkindness everywhere I go, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WEDNESDAY 3

THE PROMISE OF THE SPIRIT

He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit (Galatians 3:14 NIV).

When God promised Abraham that in him would all the nations of the earth be blessed, He was speaking prophetically of the Gospel and of the Spirit. Galatians 3:8 tells us that God preached the Gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, “...In thee shall all nations be blessed.” This blessing includes the Spirit Himself—the promise of the Father.

Receiving the Holy Spirit isn’t just about speaking in tongues or experiencing supernatural power, as wonderful as those may be. The Spirit is the seal of the new covenant and the deposit of our inheritance (Ephesians 1:13-14). He is God’s guarantee that everything Jesus obtained for us belongs to us now.

This is why the Apostle Peter, after preaching on the Day of Pentecost, said, “...Repent... and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off...” (Acts 2:38-39). That promise wasn’t limited to the Jews. It was for everyone God would call—including you. You’re no longer waiting to be qualified. In Christ, you’re qualified: you’re Abraham's seed and an heir of the promise.

Acts 2:17 reiterates what was already prophesied by the Prophet Joel: “And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh....” Notice that the promise of the Spirit is unto all: “For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call” (Acts 2:39).

Now that you're born again, you don't just have a portion of God's blessing but the full measure of Him who brings you into everything God has. The same Spirit empowers you to live victoriously every day. He helps you understand the Word, guides you into all truth, and enables you to manifest Christ.

Be ever conscious and appreciative of His presence in you and with you. Spend time fellowshiping with Him. Acknowledge Him, and He'll lead and help you fulfil your divine destiny.

PRAYER

Thank you, heavenly Father, for the blessing of the Holy Spirit in my life as He guides and empowers me to walk in victory, wisdom and divine ability. By the Holy Spirit, I know and possess all that God has made available to me in Christ, walking in paths that He has prearranged, as I fulfil my glorious destiny in Christ, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

POSSESSING THE GATES OF YOUR ENEMIES

...and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies (Genesis 22:17).

When God reaffirmed His covenant with Abraham after he offered Isaac, He made a profound promise: “...thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.” This wasn’t just about land or territory. In biblical terms, the “gate” of a city represented authority, governance and control. Therefore, to possess the gate means to take charge spiritually, economically and politically; to be in dominion.

That promise wasn't just for Abraham's immediate descendants. Galatians 3:16 makes it clear: “Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made... And to thy seed, which is Christ.” Being in Christ means you're Abraham's seed and a joint-heir of this promise. This means you're not a victim of circumstances. You have dominion. You have authority over the adversary.

You're empowered to dominate the systems of this world for the Kingdom of God. You can influence education, government, business, technology—whatever field God has placed you in. Take possession. Remember what the Bible says, “And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force” (Matthew 11:12).

This is about inheritance, influence and victory. Exercise dominion in every area of your life and your world. You’re not here to barely survive—you’re here to reign! So, rise up and speak. Take possession through prayer, your faith-filled declarations, and action. Don’t watch evil dominate your environment; cast it out. Possess the “gates” through the authority in the Name of Jesus.

CONFESSION

I am Abraham’s seed and an heir of the promise. I possess the gates of my enemies. I take charge in my city, my nation, and my world. I influence systems and structures for the Kingdom of God. I walk in dominion and victory today, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

SEALED WITH THE SPIRIT

...in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise (Ephesians 1:13).

The moment you received Christ, something remarkable happened: you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise. This seal is not just a mark of identity; rather, it's a declaration of ownership, protection and inheritance. In the realm of the Spirit, it identifies you as God's peculiar treasure.

In ancient times, and even to this day, a seal denoted authority and authenticity. Kings sealed documents to signify that the contents carried their full backing. You might have heard of the "Presidential Seal", which signifies the authority of your country or some other country's president. In the same way, God placed His Spirit in you as proof that you're fully His—marked for divine purpose and backed by heaven.

When you received the Holy Spirit, you received the "earnest of our inheritance," that is, the down payment, the guarantee of everything that belongs to us in Christ (Ephesians 1:14).

Since God gave you His Spirit, it means He's already given you His best. There is nothing else He would withhold from you. Therefore, refuse to walk through life hoping for acceptance or struggling to “qualify.” You’re already accepted, already qualified, already sealed. The Spirit in you is your access to divine wisdom, power and fellowship with God. He’s all that you could ever need; He’s God’s best.

He’s the fulfilment of the promise God made to Abraham that through Christ, the blessing and the Spirit would come upon the Gentiles. Recognize and respond to the Holy Spirit in your daily life. Listen to Him. Speak with Him. Acknowledge His presence. He is your Helper, your Teacher, your Advocate, your Strengthener, your Intercessor, your Standby, and your Guide. And because you’re sealed with Him, you’re divinely protected; you’re untouchable, preserved, empowered and distinguished for glory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for sealing me with the Holy Spirit, my guarantee of divine protection. I walk in the consciousness of His presence, power and guidance. I belong to you, marked and preserved for your glory, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

SATURDAY 6

HE WANTS YOU TO GROW UP

But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen (2 Peter 3:18).

Have you ever pondered why, as a younger Christian, it seemed your prayers received quicker answers compared to now that you've grown in your walk with the Lord? Maybe you even prayed incorrectly, and yet God always answered you. Yes, He answered you because you were a spiritual infant.

God answers such prayers, not because they're right, but because He's giving the babes some space to grow. After a while, what used to work for them at that level won't work anymore because they have to stop feeding on milk: “For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe” (Hebrews 5:13).

As you grow in Christ, God starts taking you more seriously. The things you say and do—the words you speak, the words you hear, how you reason, what you think about the Scriptures, how you pray and the content of your prayers, etc.—will begin to matter. You discover we don't pray to Jesus in the Name of Jesus; rather, we pray to the Father in the Name of Jesus.

We also don't "come to Him" every time we pray. The day you gave your heart to Christ to be born again, was the day you came to Him. The sinner can say, "Oh Lord, I come to you in the Name of Jesus" because he was out. But you are in Him; you live in Him. To a young or carnal Christian, these things may not mean much, but they bear great spiritual significance.

The Bible says, "But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil" (Hebrews 5:14). When you grow up and start applying the Scriptures rightly, you'll discover that you'll no longer experience ups and downs in life. Your life will be from faith to faith, grace to grace, and glory to glory. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for your Word, which is my life and the light by which I see. I'm yielded to its power to transform and build me up in every area, delivering to me my inheritance in Christ. Your glory is revealed in my life, constantly transfiguring and renewing me more and more in knowledge into your image, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE GIFT OF KNOWLEDGE

But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:7-8).

In these last days, it's inspiring to see God's children knowing more about the gifts of the Spirit than ever before. But one area where they've constantly made a mistake is in their interpretation of a gift mentioned in 1 Corinthians 12 as the word of knowledge. Incidentally, that's the only place throughout the Scriptures where it is referred to as the word of knowledge. Every other time the gift was referenced, it was called knowledge, not word of knowledge.

What many wrongly call the gift of the word of knowledge is, in fact, the manifestation of the gift of prophecy. You're not manifesting "knowledge" when you supernaturally know or speak something about somebody or events in his life; that's prophecy, because prophecy reveals the secrets of men. The Bible says through prophecy, the secrets of a man's heart are revealed (1 Corinthians 14:24-25). The gift of knowledge refers to the manifestation of spiritual knowledge of divine things which includes the cosmos.

The word "knowledge" in our opening verse is from the Greek, "Gnosis," which means scientific knowledge—knowledge that's based on intellectual activity. This knowledge can be supernaturally imparted to you by the Spirit of God through this gift.

Think about it: God made the plants and the animals; He made the metals and everything there is in the world. He can teach you about them. He can give you supernatural knowledge in artificial intelligence, robotics, law, or medicine. The world is looking for solutions, and we're the ones to provide them.

Christ, the embodiment of all wisdom and knowledge, lives in you. The Holy Spirit, the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge, lives in you; He teaches you all things and can supernaturally impart knowledge about anything to your spirit. Become more conscious of the ministry of the Spirit in your life. Be mindful of His power, presence, and His ability to impart solutions to your spirit that'll change the world.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of knowledge, who dwells in me and teaches me all things so that I can deal wisely in all affairs of life. He's the One who gives me absolute knowledge of concepts, ideas, circumstances, and situations with which I birth innovations and solutions to change my world, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

BY FAITH, NOT BY THE LAW

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law...That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith (Galatians 3:13–14).

Redemption from the curse of the law, as read in our opening scripture, was for the Jews and not the Gentiles. Moreover, it wasn't the end goal of salvation but the doorway into something greater: the blessing of Abraham and the promise of the Spirit through faith. The Law could not make man righteous or give him eternal life. Only faith in Christ could accomplish that.

Paul reveals that Christ became a curse on the Cross so that the Jew might be free from the penalties of the Law. But that wasn't all. He did it so that the blessing of Abraham—justification, favour, inheritance, and the Spirit—might come to the Gentiles. The Law worked on conditions; it was based on obedience.

For example, in Exodus 19:5, God said, “Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people....” But the blessing of Abraham operates by faith. It is not about qualifying through works but about receiving through faith: just as the Bible says that Abraham believed God and it was counted to him for righteousness (Romans 4:3).

Now, we who believe in Jesus are made righteous by faith and are partakers of the same blessing. That blessing includes the Spirit of God dwelling in us—guiding, empowering, and transforming us from within. This is why faith is so crucial in the New Testament. Romans 1:17 says, “...as it is written, The just shall live by faith.” Hebrews 11:6 says, “But without faith it is impossible to please him....”

Without faith, you can't receive the blessing or enjoy the inheritance. Your faith is the key to everything God has made available to you in Christ. So, live by faith! Talk faith, and respond in faith. Faith is the currency of our heavenly Kingdom. It's our lifestyle: “But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith....” (Galatians 3:11-12). The blessings of the New Testament are yours by faith.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for bringing me into the glorious liberty of the sons of God. I walk in the blessing of Abraham, full of faith and led by the Spirit. My life is the expression of your grace, favour and righteousness. I enjoy all that Christ has made available to me. I flourish in every area of my life and fulfil your divine purpose with joy and power, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

LIVE FROM WITHIN

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God (Romans 8:14).

Ecclésiastes 3:11 tells us something remarkable; it says, “He hath made everything beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart....” The New International Version renders it beautifully. It says, “He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart....” Blessed thought! The world is in your heart. Eternity is in your heart. Therefore, live from within.

This should help you understand the words of the Lord Jesus in Matthew 12:35, “A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things....” Everything is in your heart. Think about this: not only is the world and eternity in your heart, but the One who created the world and created eternity is also in your heart: 1 Corinthians 3:16, “Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?”

The Spirit of God lives in you. This is why, in Christianity, we live from within. The Christian life is lived from the inside out. The Spirit of God leads, guides, and empowers you from within. Paul, by the Spirit, said in 2 Corinthians 4:7, “But we have this treasure in earthen vessels....” Then the 16th verse says, “For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.”

The forces of life are in your heart, in your inward man. That’s why the Bible says, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life” (Proverbs 4:23). If you train your heart, your spirit, to listen to God’s voice, you’ll always know what to do, where to go, and how to respond to the issues and circumstances of life. You’ll always walk in victory. No wonder He says, “My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways” (Proverbs 23:26).

Living from your spirit also means speaking from your spirit, declaring God’s Word in faith. That’s how you rule in life. The world may rely on intellect, emotion, or impulse, but you’re led by the Spirit from within and guided by His Word that dwells in you richly.

Practice this even today; pray in tongues. Meditate on the Word. Learn to pause and check within before making decisions. As you do, you’ll find that your thoughts, words and actions are in sync with God’s perfect will for your life.

CONFESSION

With my spirit, I’ve encircled and taken possession of all things; I possess the blessings of Abraham. Life, immortality and eternity are in my spirit. I live from within, guided by divine wisdom and empowered for a life of success and impact as the Spirit of God guides me into all truth and causes me to walk in victory today, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

SPEAK THINGS INTO BEING

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways (Job 22:28).

One of the most powerful truths revealed to us in Scripture is the creative force or power of the spoken word. God created the world by His Word, and created us to function the same way. The life of the new creation is a life of speaking; we believe, and therefore speak: “We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak” (2 Corinthians 4:13).

You’re not supposed to wait for things to happen; you’re to call them into being. Hebrews 11:3 says, “Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.” This reveals what you can do with the Word of God in your mouth. In the Book of Genesis, the Bible says the earth was a chaotic mass. But after the Holy Spirit incubated upon it, God gave the Word, and everything He spoke leapt into being.

He’s given you the same ability to speak whatever you want into existence. An important key to this is meditation. When there’s a situation you want to change, take out time to meditate on God’s Word. During that time of meditation, the Word of God will well up within you with which to effect the changes you desire.

What do you want in your life? What do you want to change or create? There's no need to cry or gripe about the situation. Focus on what you want and speak it forth. In Christ, you've been brought into the transcendent life. You have dominion, favour, fruitfulness and victory. But you must enforce them with your words. Psalm 45:1 says, "...my tongue is the pen of a ready writer." What you declare continually becomes your reality.

Just like the Lord Jesus, in the volume of the book, it is written of you to do the will of God. That means your life has already been scripted in God's plan. But for it to manifest accordingly, you must give voice to it. Even now, affirm that you're making progress and manifesting the glory of Christ everywhere. Declare that good things are happening for you, through you and around you. This is how you activate the power of the Word in your life.

Even when what you need isn't visible yet, it exists in its expanded form. As you speak, it will consolidate and manifest in your world. The Bible says, "...God... calleth those things which be not as though they were" (Romans 4:17). You must do the same. Your words create your experiences. Therefore, declare abundance, peace, health and victory. Speak what God has written about you, and watch it materialize—"become flesh." Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Thank you, Father, for aligning my life with your perfect will, causing me to walk in overflowing provision and undeniable victory. My path shines brighter every day, and all I require comes to me by free course, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUPERNATURAL KNOWLEDGE

In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Colossians 2:3).

Some years ago, a man called a press briefing where he questioned the authenticity of a miracle that happened at an evangelist's crusade. According to him, the evangelist claimed that someone who was born blind had begun to see, and to prove this, he made the person identify the colour of a tie.

This man wondered how someone who was born blind and never interacted with colours could immediately identify a colour without first having to learn it. He thus concluded that the miracle wasn't real. To consider such a miracle as fake is to not know the power of God, as Jesus said: "...ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God" (Matthew 22:29).

Our opening scripture says that Jesus Christ is the embodiment of all wisdom and knowledge. Why would it be strange or impossible for the same God, who can open blind eyes, to enable a man who was born blind to instantly identify colours supernaturally? What God did was to impart that man with the gift of knowledge.

This is a gift of the Spirit that's so important. By it, you supernaturally know the things of this life. One of my very first experiences of the manifestation of the gift of knowledge was when, by inspiration, I described the inside arrangement of a certain fruit I had never seen before. The person I was talking with went to a biology textbook to examine what I had said and found everything I had said to be perfectly correct.

Most of the things I know, I know by the Spirit, through the gift of knowledge. Many times, Scriptures are supernaturally unveiled to me. Sometimes, I just know what's in the original text. These are higher blessings God has graced us with that the natural man can never attain. "But why aren't many Christians manifesting this gift?"

It's because most haven't heard about it and haven't been taught how to take advantage of it. Just as sinners receive faith for salvation and come to Christ when salvation is preached and taught, when we teach or major on subjects like this, people's minds are open for the impartation of divine knowledge. It's one of the ways it happens, in addition to yielding to the ministry of the Spirit.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the ministry of the Holy Spirit in my life. Your Spirit teaches me all things and gives me supernatural knowledge about the things of this life. There's nothing I cannot know because my heart is open to receive mysteries and secrets that the world can never understand, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

TAKE POSSESSION OF THE NATIONS

And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are ye slack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you? (Joshua 18:3).

The book of Joshua opens up a very important period in the Israelites' journey. Remember that it was Moses who brought them out of Egypt, but it was Joshua who took them into the Promised Land. After many years of fighting and defeating 31 kings, Joshua brought the children of Israel into their place of inheritance.

The Bible says, “And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them” (Joshua 18:1). The land was subdued before them, and they were at rest. They moved in happily and even set up church in Shiloh. The next verse, however, reveals that more than half of the tribes hadn't taken over their inheritance even though it had been divided for them: “And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance” (Joshua 18:2).

Joshua, at his old age, was concerned and asked, “...How long are ye slack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?” (Joshua 18:3). The Israelites knew where the land was because God had described it to them. Rather than possess it, they were content with squatting with their brethren and enjoying the peace.

God has given us the nations of the world, and it's important we don't delay in possessing what already belongs to us. He said in Psalm 2:8, “Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.” We've asked and we've received. Don't wait for some special occasion to win souls. You're in that occasion now.

God has given you the land, that place where you are; what are you doing about it? Where are your outreaches? Where are the souls you've won to the Lord? It's time to take evangelism to the next level. Whatever you want to do by way of winning souls, if you work with the Spirit, He'll do mighty things with and through you. There's no country or city whose doors could be closed against us. When we move into a place, regardless of how small we start, the Word of God spreads and prevails. Hallelujah!

CONFESSION

I proclaim the Gospel everywhere with boldness and urgency, knowing that the Lord has given us all nations. No door can be closed against me for the Lord is mightily at work in me to declare His truth to the nations in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. Hallelujah!

YOUR WORDS ESTABLISH YOUR DOMINION

Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof (Proverbs 18:21).

Your words are not just sounds; they are spiritual instruments of power. Words are things; they have spiritual tangibility. God designed the human spirit to function like His: to speak and create. It helps you understand the reason the Lord Jesus said, “You shall have what you say” (Mark 11:23). Your dominion in life is voice-activated.

As the seed of Abraham, you function like God by speaking truth in faith. Don’t speak on the basis of sensory perception. Don’t speak fear. Speak what God has said. Your health, finances, relationships and destiny respond to your words. Keep declaring life, peace, strength and increase.

Many live below their inheritance because they’ve never voiced what is written of them in the Scriptures. The written Word must become the spoken Word. Until you say it, it will not happen. Your words set spiritual laws in motion. When you speak in line with God’s Word, angels move to act in your behalf. Heaven backs your declarations.

Therefore, don't be quiet. Speak your inheritance. Proclaim your identity in Christ. Declare that you're full of the Holy Ghost, walking in power and divine insight. Command your day, and frame your future with your words.

CONFESSION

My words are full of life and power, and as I declare the Word of God boldly in faith, it produces victories and the realities that I desire. My life moves in the direction of my confessions. I speak life and abundance, and that's what I see and enjoy, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUNDAY 14

IN CHRIST, THE PROMISES HAVE BEEN FULFILLED

For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us (2 Corinthians 1:20).

God's promises are not uncertain or pending. In Christ, every promise God ever made has already been fulfilled. You don't need to beg, wait, or wonder, because in Him, the answer is "Yes" and the confirmation is "Amen!" Hallelujah! Imagine all the beautiful promises of the Old Testament, the entire blessings of Abraham—they've all been fulfilled in Christ.

Now that you're in Christ, you've possessed the blessings. You've received the promise of the Spirit and the fullness of divine life. 2 Peter 1:3 tells us that His divine power has "...given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue." Every blessing you can ever imagine, anything good that you can ever contemplate in Christ Jesus, they're already your present-hour possessions.

Sadly, due to their ignorance of this reality, some Christians live as though they're still trying to obtain what God has already given to them. They pray and cry for what they should simply acknowledge and receive by faith. You were born into an incorruptible inheritance. All things are yours now: "Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours" (1 Corinthians 3:21-22).

The Word says, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" (Romans 8:32). This means nothing is withheld from you. God gave you His best, the Lord Jesus. Along with Him, He freely gave you everything: eternal life, righteousness, divine health, prosperity, wisdom, victory, etc. It's time to stop "seeking" and start walking in the blessings. Enjoy your inheritance in Christ.

Declare, "All things are mine. All blessings and divine favours are mine, and I enjoy them in real-time." If it's written in the Word, then it's already yours. Take possession with your words. Rejoice like one who has received. Act like one who has inherited the blessings. You're not a beggar in the Kingdom. You're a possessor. All the promises are yours, and in Christ, they are fulfilled. Glory to God!

Dear Father, what joy to know that in Christ I've possessed all things; all blessings and divine favour are mine, and I enjoy them in real-time. I walk in divine health, prosperity, righteousness and victory. Nothing is missing or lacking in my life. I live in the fullness of God's blessing, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

MONDAY 15

DON'T FORGET YOUR PRIORITIES

Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day (Deuteronomy 8:11).

It's very easy to forget what you're supposed to be doing for the Lord. I'm not just referring to individuals; even the Church in general can forget its priorities. Look at Church history; it only took three centuries from the inception of the Church for it to dominate the whole world. This was a phenomenal accomplishment in a day when communication and transportation were very slow.

In 324 AD, Emperor Constantine abolished the persecution of Christians, and just six years later, by 330 AD, he declared Christianity the religion of the world. The Church was happy about this and, for some reason, became too relaxed. They didn't see the urgency for evangelism because everything seemed fine. "Everyone's kind of religious," they thought, but Jesus didn't come to establish a religion; He wanted men truly saved.

Thus, it's important to always reappraise our priorities. The children of Israel forgot their priorities. The Bible tells us how God gave them the land He promised them. With it, He gave them rest; there was peace, and everything was fine. (Joshua 21:43-45). He however gave them a warning in Joshua 23:7-8: "That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them: But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.”

The Israelites tried to heed this warning for a while but eventually got carried away and began to serve pagan gods. That's what happens when we're not winning souls: the Church begins to get worldly. Soon enough, we start getting interested in their attractive job offers and mouth-watering businesses. They keep pulling us until we start forgetting that we're supposed to be soul winners.

That's when you see Christians who can't come to church because they have to go to work on Sundays. Some stop coming to church because business is booming and they always have to travel. Such people have forgotten their priorities. Don't let the world pull you to its attractions; don't forget your priorities. Maintain the sanctity of your fellowship and devotion to Christ and to spiritual things. Keep winning souls. You're first and foremost a Christian; let that be evident in everything about your life.

CONFESSION

What a joy to preach the glorious Gospel! The expansion of God's Kingdom in the earth is my top priority, and I declare that nothing will distract me from channelling my energies towards turning men from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, making them citizens of God's eternal Kingdom. Amen.

TUESDAY 16

THE KINGDOM IS ALREADY YOURS

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom (Luke 12:32).

God isn't holding back anything from you. Jesus said it's the Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. That means everything God has, everything He rules over, and everything He's established as part of His dominion, He has joyfully given to you. This is a present reality. You're not going to inherit the Kingdom someday; you've already been made a partaker of God's glorious kingdom.

Colossians 1:13 says He has delivered us from the power of darkness and translated us into the Kingdom of His Love-Son. When you were born again, you were born into a Kingdom, a spiritual territory, where Jesus is Lord, and righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost reign. You're not an outsider but a bona fide citizen of the Kingdom: “Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God's people and also members of his household” (Ephesians 2:19 NIV). You have rights, privileges and authority in this Kingdom.

Many still live with a religious mentality, thinking they have to qualify for God's best. But the Kingdom is not a reward; it's an inheritance. An inheritance is not earned; it's received by birthright or bestowed to you by choice. In Christ, you're an heir of God and a joint-heir with the Lord Jesus (Romans 8:17). The Kingdom is yours both by right and by divine providence—grace.

Understand your Kingdom identity and reign in life. Speak with authority. Walk in dominion. Dispense favours and blessings. Enforce your victory. Something else that's so amazing is that not only were you born into the Kingdom when you were born again, the Kingdom was also born in you. The Lord Jesus said in Luke 17:21, “...behold, the kingdom of God is within you.” Therefore, live boldly. Walk like a king. Declare that the Kingdom is yours and function from that position of power and grace. It's the Father's pleasure to see you reign.

CONFESSION

The Kingdom is mine now! I have been translated into God's glorious Kingdom, and I live by its power and principles. I walk in righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. I reign in life by Christ Jesus. Hallelujah!

THE BLESSING MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it (Proverbs 10:22).

What sets you apart in life isn't your education, family background, or connections; it's the blessing of the Lord. The blessing of the Lord is a spiritual force that produces undeniable results. It is empowerment for success, fruitfulness and increase. And as a child of God, you carry this blessing.

Psalm 1:3 gives a description of the one who's blessed of the Lord: “And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.” Glory to God! When God blessed Abraham, He empowered him to prosper and influence nations; and Galatians 3:9 declares, “...they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.” That includes you.

The blessing works beyond logic, human comprehension and understanding. It's what made Isaac prosper during famine: “Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him. And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great: For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him” (Genesis 26:12-14). The blessing was what made Jacob to prevail with Laban despite Laban's treachery (Genesis 29:21-31; Genesis 30:25-43).

It was the blessing that made a slave like Joseph become a Prime Minister in Egypt. The blessing doesn't rely on favourable conditions; it creates them. It causes you to succeed in spite of opposition and adversities, and shine in the darkest places. This is your life now that you're born again; you're already blessed with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ (Ephesians 1:3).

Walk in the consciousness that you're the blessed of the Lord. Acknowledge it. Speak it. Declare every so often that you're blessed. The blessing isn't a vague idea; it is tangible. It manifests in health, wisdom, favour, open doors, and supernatural supply. It attracts help, provision and promotion.

You're not governed by the economy, policies, and systems of this world. You live under the government of Heaven, in the fullness of the blessings of Christ. That's your advantage. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for blessing me with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. The blessing is my advantage, producing increase, health, wisdom and divine favours; I function in supernatural advantage and walk in prosperity with peace, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WALK IN THE REALITY OF YOUR DIVINE NATURE

Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life (Romans 6:4).

Christianity is not a religion; it's a relationship with God and a participation in the divine life. When you were born again, you were recreated in Christ. You received a new life, a new nature, and a new identity. This isn't a future hope but a present-hour reality. The Christian is not a forgiven sinner but a new creature: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

The old man with his limitations, weaknesses and failures is gone. The new you, the new creation, is fashioned after Christ—righteous, victorious, and a living tabernacle of God. This truth is foundational to walking in dominion. Some Christians struggle because they still identify with the old nature which was crucified with Christ (Galatians 2:20). They pray like beggars, think like victims, and speak defeat, because they don't know who they really are in Christ.

You're the righteousness of God in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:21). You're more than a conqueror (Romans 8:37). You've been blessed with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ Jesus (Ephesians 1:3). You're complete in Christ (Colossians 2:10). You hail from God; your origin is divine (1 John 4:4). Have this consciousness. Live the divine life. That's Christianity; it's a life of power, glory and fellowship with the Spirit.

Every day is an opportunity for you to express Christ and manifest the realities of the Kingdom. Refuse to see yourself from a natural perspective, as a mere man. Psalm 82:6 says, "I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High." You're a God-being. You've been brought into life and immortality. Walk in the reality of your divine nature: "According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue" (2 Peter 1:3). Hallelujah!

CONFESSION

I am a new creation in Christ Jesus. I walk in righteousness, victory and divine purpose. I've been brought into life and immortality. I manifest the glory of God and the realities of the Kingdom everywhere. Blessed be God!

THE POWER OF REVELATION KNOWLEDGE

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him (Ephesians 1:17).

There're several verses of scripture in the Old and New Testaments that underscore the importance of knowledge: revelation knowledge. For example, Proverbs 11:9 says, "...through knowledge shall the just be delivered." 2 Peter 1:2-3 says, "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue."

Revelation knowledge of God's Word is required for the victorious Christian life. It's not enough to know the Word; you must have it revealed to your spirit by the Holy Spirit. The Word must move from information to illumination. That's what propels you into a higher realm of victory and dominion. The Apostle Paul prayed that the Church in Ephesus would be granted "the spirit of wisdom and revelation." Because until your spirit is illumined by the Holy Spirit to "see" what God has made available to you, you can't walk in the reality of it.

What you don't know, you can't claim. What you haven't seen with the eyes of your spirit, you can't enjoy. The full blessings of the Gospel are yours now, but they must become real to you through revelation. Only then can they manifest in your life. You must personalize the Scriptures. Don't read the Word like a history book. Read it as a living document written about you.

The Word of God is God's mirror that reveals your real identity, personality, authority and glory in Christ Jesus. The Epistles are the album of the new creation. Study them and ask the Holy Spirit for insight and illumination, and to unveil the realities therein to your heart. When that happens, they become part of your consciousness.

Faith works by revelation. When your spirit takes a hold of God's truth, you speak it with boldness and act with confidence. The results would be testimonies, victories, unending joy and peace with prosperity. Therefore, don't live by head knowledge. Live by revelation knowledge. This knowledge comes from meditating on the Word and spending time in fellowship with the Holy Spirit. Every so often, declare that you're filled with the knowledge of God's will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Hallelujah!

Dear Father, I thank you for giving me the spirit of wisdom and revelation so I can know and relate with you and walk in the reality of my identity, authority, dominion, victory and righteousness in Christ Jesus. Thank you for enlightening the eyes of my understanding to live in the reality of your Word and experience supernatural results, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

BE RICH TOWARD GOD

And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? (Luke 12:16-17).

The Lord Jesus, in Luke 12:16-21, introduced us to a certain rich man who found himself in a dilemma due to his increasing wealth. He said within himself, “... What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?” (Luke 12:17). His solution was to tear down his barns and build greater ones to store his goods. Confident in his wealth, he then said to his soul, “...Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry” (Luke 12:19).

However, the narrative took a drastic turn as God interrupted his plans and said to him: “...Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?” (Luke 12:20). The rich man’s carefully stored wealth became meaningless in the face of eternity.

The Lord Jesus concluded with these sobering words: “So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God” (Luke 12:21). This parable warns against the folly of amassing wealth without regard for God or His Kingdom. It is not the possession of wealth that is condemned but the selfish hoarding of it, disconnected from divine purpose.

There are those who, despite having little, give generously to the Gospel, prioritizing the work of God above personal gain. The Bible highlights such selflessness (Luke 21:1-4). Some, on the other hand, like the rich man in the parable, invest only in the transient things of this life. They accumulate wealth for themselves, expanding their accounts and resources, while remaining indifferent to God's work. They're not rich toward God.

Ask yourself this critical question: Am I rich toward God? Are your resources aligned with His purpose, or are they merely for your personal comfort and security? To be rich toward God is to prioritize His Kingdom, giving generously and joyfully to support the Gospel and its impact on lives around the world. Jesus said, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness...” (Matthew 6:33).

The Apostle Paul admonished, “Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life” (1 Timothy 6:17-19). Let your resources and efforts reflect a life rich toward God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the wisdom and insight of your Word. I align my resources with your purpose in the Kingdom. I live with the consciousness of eternity, giving generously and joyfully to the Gospel and making a lasting impact in my world, for your glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SPEAK GOD'S WORD BOLDLY

For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him (John 3:34).

Isn't it amazing that the Lord Jesus would say in John 20:21, “...Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you?” It means you have His authority. The Father gave the Lord Jesus the Spirit without measure because He sent Him and therefore honoured every word that Jesus spoke while He walked the earth.

Likewise, you also have been given the Spirit without measure, and the Father honours your words spoken in faith. Do you now see why you should always be bold to affirm the Word of God? When you speak God's Word boldly, heaven responds, angels act, and results follow.

Speaking God's Word boldly is much more than loud recitation of Scripture. Rather, it's declaring divine realities with authority—words that carry the same power that created the universe. Remember, the Holy Spirit is the power of the God-head. For example, when God said in Genesis 1:3, “...Let there be light: and there was light,” it was the Holy Spirit that caused the light to appear out of darkness. He's the “doer” of the work.

The Master said in John 14:10, “...the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.” Here, He was referring to the Holy Spirit as the Father in Him. He’s the Father in you. Hallelujah! Therefore, when you speak words of power, healing, deliverance and life, the Holy Spirit incubates on them and causes them to produce results.

The Lord Jesus said, “...the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life” (John 6:63). That same divine quality is in your mouth when you speak His Word. That’s why you can command situations, rebuke sickness, call forth provision, and speak peace to any storm.

Don’t speak carelessly. Don’t speak the language of the world: fear, unbelief and falsehood. Train yourself to say what God says, no matter what you see or feel. Fill your heart with the Word (Colossians 3:16) so that your mouth becomes an instrument of creative power.

CONFESSION

The Word of God is in my heart and in my mouth, and I speak it forth with boldness and authority. My words are spirit and life, producing health, peace, favour and abundance for me and those around me. I’m walking in preordained pathways, executing and fulfilling the will of the Father, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

YOU'RE THE EXPRESSION OF THE BLESSING

And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing (Genesis 12:2).

Galatians 3:29 says, “And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.” The blessing of God is not only something you have; it's who you are. God didn't just say to Abraham, “I will bless you”; He also said, “You shall be a blessing.”

That means Abraham became the embodiment of the blessing, and as the seed of Abraham, you're also the embodiment of the blessing. In Christ, you're the fulfilment of God's promise to Abraham. You're not seeking the blessing. You're the carrier of it.

The blessing isn't mere material possessions; it's a spiritual force. It empowers everything you touch to prosper. It makes you fruitful, productive and influential. Even your presence in a place causes divine results to manifest. Joseph was an inspiring example of this truth. Though sold as a slave, the Bible says, “...the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man...

(Genesis 39:2). Why?

It's because the blessing was on him. Everything around him responded to that blessing such that even while in prison, he was a person of influence. Right from inside that prison, he rose to become the Prime Minister of Egypt. This is your reality too.

You're the seed of Abraham, called to be a blessing to your world. You're not ordinary. The forces of heaven are at work in and through you. Be conscious of this truth. Declare it daily; walk in it. Let it reflect in your words, actions and expectations. You're the expression of the blessing!

CONFESSION

I'm the seed of Abraham. I'm an heir of God and a joint heir with Christ. I'm blessed and I am a blessing. The power of the blessing is working in and through me. Everywhere I go, I bring favour, increase and divine influence. I am the expression of God's goodness in the earth. Hallelujah!

CONSISTENT FRUITFULNESS AND PRODUCTIVITY

That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God (Colossians 1:10).

God's desire for you is to be fruitful and productive in every area of your life, not occasionally, but consistently. As the seed of Abraham and a child of God, you've been empowered to live a result-producing life. You're not here to merely exist; you're here to make an impact and bear lasting fruits.

The Lord Jesus said in John 15:16, “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain...” (John 15:16). Earlier in the 8th verse, He said, “Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples” (John 15:8). Fruitfulness is a spiritual quality, and it extends to every good work—soul winning, your career, your relationships, your service in God's house, and more.

The key is walking in the consciousness of your divine nature; that way, productivity becomes your lifestyle. You don't have to struggle to succeed. The life in you naturally produces excellence, wisdom and increase. Christ in you guarantees a life of ever-increasing fruitfulness and productivity.

Christ in you causes your ideas to prosper and your efforts to yield lasting impact. Even when others fail, you succeed. Even in tough seasons and austere times, you flourish, because you're connected to a higher power and you play by a different set of rules.

Furthermore, fruitfulness and productivity increase with knowledge. The more you grow in the knowledge of God, the more effective and productive you become. Therefore, feed on the Word. Meditate on it. Educate your spirit with the Word and watch your life move from glory to glory. Psalm 1:3 further reveals how consistently fruitful and productive your life is when you meditate on the Word day and night: “And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

Righteous Father, I thank you for making me fruitful and productive in every good work, and to walk in divine wisdom and excellence. Your Spirit is at work in me, causing me not only to desire your divine will but also to carry it out. My life is a testimony of your grace, love and mercy, and I increase in knowledge and abound in wisdom as I fulfil your purpose for my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WEDNESDAY 24

YOUR LIFE IS FOR THE GLORY OF GOD

*This people have I formed for myself;
they shall shew forth my praise
(Isaiah 43:21).*

God didn't create you for nothing. He formed you for Himself: to manifest His praise, display His excellence, and reveal His glory. As a new creation in Christ Jesus, your life has purpose and divine significance. You're God's showcase of grace and righteousness. You're not just saved to go to heaven; you're saved to reveal heaven on earth.

1 Peter 2:9 AMPC says, “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, [God’s] own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.” That means your life ought to be full of testimonies. You were born to shine, to impact your world with the glory of God.

No wonder the Lord Jesus said you're the light of the world, a city set on a hill. Through you, others see God's goodness, power and love. Your words, your walk and your results are all meant to glorify God because you're the effulgence of the Father's glory. The glory of God is within you, and when you meditate on the Word and live the Word, that glory shines through you more and more.

Colossians 1:27 says, "...Christ in you, the hope of glory." In John 17:22, the Lord Jesus said, "And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one." You're replete with the glory of God, and much stronger than that, you are the glory of God, and your heavenly Father is called "...the Father of glory..." (Ephesians 1:17). That means your name is glory!

Live in sync with your divine nature. Don't accept a life of failure or defeat. That's not your calling. There's no shame or reproach in your life. God ordained your life to be the proof of His grace, love and power. You have a life of excellence, victory, purpose and divine eminence. Hallelujah!

CONFESSION

My life is for the glory of God. I am His workmanship, created to show forth His excellence. I live a life of purpose, victory and impact. Through me, the world sees the power and beauty of God's love, and many are brought out of darkness into God's marvellous light, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THURSDAY 25

BUILT TO LAST, DESIGNED FOR GLORY

And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it (Matthew 16:18).

The Church of Jesus Christ is not weak or fragile; it's indestructible. It's not an organization trying to survive; it's a divine institution built by the Lord Jesus Himself. He declared, "I will build my church," and what He builds is eternal, powerful and glorious. You're a part of His Church, not as a bystander, but as a living stone (1 Peter 2:5).

That means you were chosen, shaped and placed by God in the Body of Christ to reflect His glory and fulfill His purpose. You're not a mistake. You're built to last and designed to shine. You're not a part of something that can fail. The Church is not subject to the systems or structures of this world. We operate heavenly principles. We're powered by the Holy Spirit and governed by the Word.

That's why persecution, opposition, or adversity cannot destroy us. Instead, we grow stronger, more vibrant, and more impactful. James 1:2 says, "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations." Romans 8:35 tells us that there's no amount of tribulation, distress, persecution, famine, perils or suffering that can prevail against us.

Then from verses 37-39, it says, “Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” The gates of hell, the strategies, structures and systems of darkness will never prevail against the Church. We’re more than conquerors.

We have Satan where He belongs: under our feet. We’re in dominion. We’re reigning. We’re joint-heirs with Christ, associates of the God-kind, vessels of eternal excellence. We’re unstoppable. The glory of God is revealed in and through us. That’s the Church of Jesus Christ today—built to last, designed for glory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for making me a living stone in the glorious Church of Jesus Christ—built to last and designed for glory. Thank you for the authority you’ve granted us to execute your will and manifest your glory in the earth. Today, your children, all over the world, walk in power, purpose and victory as they proclaim the Gospel, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 26

CREATED TO KNOW AND FULFIL THE WILL OF GOD

...always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God (Colossians 4:12).

God's desire is not just that you know His will, but that you stand perfect and complete in it. You were created to live in the centre of God's purpose for your life, flourishing in and fulfilling His divine plan. Predestination is at work in you: “For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren” (Romans 8:29).

Ephesians 2:10 AMPC says, “For we are God's [own] handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, [born anew] that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us [taking paths which He prepared ahead of time], that we should walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live].” There's a life that's been prearranged by God for you to live and enjoy. It's the good life, the transcendent life in Christ.

That's why Paul commended Epaphras who laboured in prayer so the saints in Colossae would not only know but stand perfect and complete in the will of God. That means fully aligned, established, and functioning within the ambits of God's perfect will. His will is that you prosper, be in health, walk in wisdom, win souls, live righteously and reign in life. His will is revealed in His Word.

As you meditate on the Word and fellowship with the Holy Spirit, you become synchronized with God's plans and purposes and equipped to walk accordingly. Through the Word of God and the ministry of the Holy Spirit, you're trained to know and walk in God's divine provisions; your discernment sharpens, and your decisions reflect heaven's interests and intent.

Even now, declare that you're perfect and complete in all the will of God. The Lord Jesus said in Matthew 13:11, "...it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven...." Affirm that you're filled with the knowledge of God's will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. Let this be your consciousness, your life, and your testimony.

CONFESSION

I am perfect and complete in all the will of God; the mysteries of the Kingdom are unveiled to my spirit. I walk in divine wisdom, purpose, and victory. I'm aligned with God's plan, and I fulfil my calling with excellence, to the glory of His Name. Amen.

SATURDAY 27

THE NAME OF JESUS—YOUR BADGE OF AUTHORITY

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son (John 14:13).

The Name of Jesus is not a religious formula; it's your badge of authority. It represents everything Jesus is and everything He has accomplished. When you use His Name, it's as though Jesus Himself were making the request or issuing the command. His Name is the greatest of all; it rules in heaven, in the earth, and under the earth.

Philippians 2:9-11 says, “Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” Hallelujah! That's the name that's been given to us to live by. The Lord Jesus gave us the legal right to use His Name.

He said in Mark 16:17-18, “And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.” That means when you speak in His Name, demons flee, sickness bows, and miracles happen. The power is not in how loud you speak, but in the authority of the Name.

It's not about emotion; it's about revelation. When you know what that Name represents and who you are in Him, you speak with boldness and results follow. The apostles understood this. In Acts 3:6, Peter said to a man who was crippled from birth, "...In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk."

Immediately, strength came to the man's feet and anklebones, and he was healed instantly (Acts 3:7-8). That's the power of the Name in action. You've been authorized to use that same Name. Use it to change situations. Use it in prayer. Use it to rebuke fear, command order and increase in your finances. Use it to heal the sick, cleanse the lepers and raise the dead.

Colossians 3:17 says, "And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him." In other words, live in and by the power of that Name: it's your symbol of authority, your emblem of dominion. Use it to reign over circumstances, keep yourself in divine health, and maintain the triumphant life God has given you.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me the power of attorney to use the Name of Jesus; I live and function in the authority of His Name which works and produces results for me everywhere. I cast out devils, heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead and reign over circumstances in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUNDAY 28

RIGHTEOUSNESS SPEAKS

But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise... (Romans 10:6).

Righteousness has a voice; it speaks! The Bible says the righteousness which is of faith doesn't beg, complain, or fear; it declares God's truths. It speaks the language of victory, boldness and dominion.

Being born again, you were born righteous; you were born with the life and nature of God. His righteousness was imparted to your spirit, supplanting the sin nature. That righteousness is a nature and a position, but it also empowers your speech. It causes you to talk like God.

So, when you say, "I'm the righteousness of God in Christ," it's much more than a positive confession. It's the affirmation of truth! You're saying what God has said. The Bible says, "He has said, so that we may boldly say..." (Hebrews 13:5-6). He said in 2 Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." Speaking the same things with God is how we activate and release the life and blessings of righteousness.

You can't walk in your inheritance without saying it.

You can't reign in life unless you talk as the royalty that you are. The Lord Jesus said you shall have whatsoever you say (Mark 11:23). He also said, "By your words you shall be justified" (Matthew 12:37). Therefore, you have to speak and speak right.

The righteousness of faith doesn't say, "I hope one day I'll be healed or helped." No! Rather, it says, "I have and walk in divine health, and I'm marvellously helped of the Lord." The righteousness of faith calls things that are not as though they were; it speaks reality, and the Word of God is the reality.

When you speak the Word of God in faith, you align your life with heaven's will. You silence doubt and confusion. You activate angels. You chart a course of divine success. So, speak boldly. Declare your health, peace, prosperity and victory. Express your righteousness through your words.

CONFESSION

I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. I speak words of life, power and faith. My words are full of faith, hope and love, and they establish God's will in my life, in the lives of others, and in my environment. I walk in divine favour and victory today, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

MONDAY 29

DECLARE WHAT YOU WANT

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways (Job 22:28).

As a child of God, it makes no difference the challenges you face; they're bread for you. You're a victor, not a victim. You can change hopeless situations. The power is in your mouth. Our opening scripture says you shall decree a thing, and it shall be established. That's divine authority! It means your words are instruments for change, instruments for creating the realities you desire.

Keep declaring blessings and the changes you want even if you're yet to "see" them with your optical eyes. The reason is that in the realm of the Spirit, the moment you speak in faith, it begins to take form. Your words are the raw materials to create the conditions and circumstances of your life. So, declare what you want.

Abraham called himself "the father of many nations" according to God's plan for him, before Isaac was born. That's the way of faith; it speaks things into being. Don't wait for things to change. Declare the change. Don't wait to "feel" blessed. Say, "I am blessed"; because that's what the Word says: "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ" (Ephesians 1:3 NIV).

Keep declaring your health, your peace and your progress. Speak to your body. Speak to your finances. Speak to your circumstances. The more you affirm the Word, the more you establish heaven's reality in your life. The blessings of God, the realities of the Kingdom, are voice-activated. Even your salvation was activated by words (Romans 10:9-10).

Every time you speak in line with the Word, you give divine substance to the unseen. So never stop talking. Keep prophesying your destiny. Keep releasing faith-filled words. Declare that your change has come. Affirm that your life is upward and forward. You're excellent and full of glory.

If, for example, you've been in debt or in financial difficulty, declare that you're in abundance and maintain your confession. Stick to what the Word says about your prosperity. Before long, you'll receive clear guidance from the Spirit on steps to take that'll keep you in an unending flow of resources. Remember, through the Holy Spirit we know the things God has freely given to us, and we speak them forth (1 Corinthians 2:12-13). Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for bringing me into a life of glory in Christ Jesus; blessed, fruitful, and favoured, walking in abundance, health, and divine wisdom. I'm guided by the Holy Spirit to know all that you've freely given to me in Christ, and I speak them forth and see them materialize and established in my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

TUESDAY 30

CHRIST IN YOU MEANS GLORY FULFILLED

To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery... which is Christ in you, the hope of glory (Colossians 1:27).

The greatest revelation of the New Testament is not just that Jesus Christ died for us but that He resurrected and now lives in us. This is the mystery that was hidden for ages and generations but is now revealed: Christ in you, the hope of glory. Christ in you, the hope of glory means the glory has been realized or fulfilled. It's not a promise but a present-hour reality.

There're those who say, "God is great, He'll never share His glory with anyone." Yes! He's great and will not share His glory with the pagan gods, but He did more than share His glory with us: He gave us His glory: "And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one" (John 17:22).

When you received Christ, you received glory. There's glory in your life. No shame. No reproach. You were brought into the realm of divine possibilities, excellence and victory. Glory is now your life, your nature, and your environment. The Bible says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). That was before Christ came. Christ in you means you're now the bearer or carrier of God's presence, power and righteousness.

You're not trying to access glory; you live in it.

This truth should change the way you think, talk, live, and see yourself. You're not ordinary. You're a God-carrier. You're the mobile headquarters of divinity. Your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. Everywhere you go, Christ shows up in you, with you, and through you. This is why you can never be disadvantaged. The One who created the universe lives in you in the fullness of His glory.

Moreover, did you know that you're the glory of God? Your name is the glory of God. That's simple to understand because your heavenly Father is described in Ephesians 1:17 as "...the Father of glory..." If Mr Smith is described or introduced as "the father of John," it means he has a son called John. Glory is who you've become in Christ. Your glory life is on. See yourself in the glory. See yourself walking in the glory. See yourself as the glory of God. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for making me the effulgence of your glory, the expression of your righteousness, and the dispenser of your grace. Thank you for making my life a manifestation of your beauty, presence, power, and excellence. I see myself as your glory, and live the glorious life in Christ, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

PRAYER OF SALVATION

We trust you have been blessed by this devotional. We invite you to make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life by praying thus:

“O Lord God, I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, Son of the living God. I believe He died for me and God raised Him from the dead. I believe He’s alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life from this day. Through Him and in His Name, I have eternal life; I’m born again. Thank you Lord for saving my soul! I’m now a child of God. Hallelujah!”

7 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD GO TO CHURCH

As a Christian, it's important for you to identify with a local assembly, a church you can call your HOME and participate fully in the activities. Here are some of the reasons you must go to church:

1. God Said So

God desires His children to attend church meetings. The admonition is clear in Hebrews 10:25 for us not to forsake the assembly of the brethren.

2. Jesus Did, Showing Us A Pattern To Follow

Jesus had a culture of going to "church." It was part of His personal discipline and devotion (Luke 4:16).

3. It's The Vehicle By Which You Function In The Body Of Christ

The local assembly is a microcosm of the spiritual body of Christ. You function in that Body by functioning in the local assembly.

4. The Church Is The Pillar And Ground Of Truth (1 Timothy 3:15)

The Church is the pillar and ground of Truth where you're taught the Word of God. The teaching of God's Word is crucial for victorious living.

5. The Church Is A Place Of Fellowship With Other Christians

Fellowship with other Christians is essential to the growth of a Christian. We sharpen ourselves as we fellowship together in church.

6. The Church Is A Place Where Christian Growth And Character Are Enhanced

God ordained certain offices in the Church for the benefit of the Christian; for growth and to sharpen his spiritual development (Ephesians 4:11-16).

7. The Church Is A Place Of Training

The Church is a place where discipline is imparted. God sets instructors who are able to instruct you in the truth and help you culture your life.

“Liberated From Anger”

During my childhood and adolescence, I experienced challenges with anger management. When overwhelmed by tension, anxiety, or depression, I engaged in self-harm as a temporary release. This pattern persisted until I encountered Rhapsody of Realities during my university years. The powerful teachings in Rhapsody of Realities addressed my struggles directly, enabling me to shed my old self and transform into God's image. Today, I approach life with boldness and unwavering courage, irrespective of the situation, because of my new identity in Christ. Hallelujah!

“Freed From The Spirit Of Fear And Paralysis”

Rhapsody of Realities found me at my lowest point. I was plagued by a spirit of fear that manifested as nightly paralysis in my legs. I relied on medication just to sleep. Then, a friend gave me a copy of Rhapsody of Realities. Immersed in its teachings, I read and meditated on the Word day and night. I discarded all my medications and learned to fight the paralysis with my faith. Through the consistent application of God's Word from the devotional, I was completely healed and made whole. Hallelujah!

“Divine Protection”

I left for work without reading Rhapsody of Realities but felt compelled to read it during my break. The day's topic was on divine protection. Soon after, as I crossed the road, a truck sped towards me. Suddenly, I felt a strong pull backwards, pulling me out of its path. As people rushed to help, I kept asking who had pulled me. Then, it hit me instantly: I had just experienced the protection I had read moments ago in Rhapsody. Praise the Lord!
